THE PRESIDENT.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At 2 P. M., the delegates were again in their places, and after a praise service, conducted by President J. W. Allen, resumed their deliberations. A memorial was presented by Rev. Mr. Sawyer, of Cobrado, in behalf of superannuated ministers. By R. B. Tyler offered a report from the committee on Christian Union, of which he is chairman. The report was greeted with hearry applause, and was ordered filed as a part of the proceedings of the convention. Dr. Garrison stated that the committee had arranged with Lyr. W. E. Hatcher, of this city, to report at 3 P. M. on Tuesday, in behalf of the southern baptist Church, in response to a communication addressed to this body at the convention held in Chicago last year. The announcement was received with enthusiastic approval.

Mr. Cosper reported, as chairman of the committee on ways and means. The items of this report were discussed serialing, and in the main adopted.

Dr. Half then introduced Dr. Campbell, of this city, who presented the wark of the Virginia Rible Society.

The report of the committee on foreign populations was called for, and Rev. N. S. Haynes, of Chicago, responded, explaining that the regalar chairman was absent and that his duty had been assigned him only a few flowing to the restriction of immigration provided a spirited discussion, the opposition being upon the ground that this bordered upon political territory. Dr. Tyler, in, an impositioned, three-minute spessel, supported the report, declaring it his judgment that it should be adopted as it was, and adding: "If I had the printing of that report, I should traillies the very parts that have been objected to. I believe that pure religion and undefield is to down the result of the trail of the provider of the trail of the trail of the trail of the trail of

GEORGE MOLES FORCED TO GIVE UP SIXTY-FIVE DOLLARS.

Death of Mr. George H. Jewett at Midloth. ian_Charged With Steeling a Cow. Mrs. Moore's Death_Personal, MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, 1121 HULL STREET, BEATTIE BLOCK.

Saturday night George Moles, Jr., was obbed of $65 in United States currency on Ninth street, near the corner of Balnbridge. A warrant was sworn out against Buck Dunavant and Willie Dobbins, as the perpetrators of the robbery.

In the Mayor's Court yesterday morning the case was called. Mr. Moles testined that Saturday night he was caught by the throat by some one who came up from behind, and hurled to the ground.
He stated that Dobbins was with him at that time, and was struck at by the men who came up. When he arose he missed his pocketbook, which contained about $55. He did not know who the parties were that attacked him.

After hearing the testimony of Mr.
Moles, counsel for the accused asked bail, which was refused by the Mayor, and the case was continued until Wednesday, at which time witnesses who had not been summoned for the prosecution will be on on Ninth street, near the corner of Baln-

The case seemed to create quite a sensation, as the court-room was packed to its utmost capacity, and it is something unusual for an occurrence of highway robbery to take place on the principal streets.

Mr. George H. Jewett, one of the most widely known citizens of Chesterfield, died Sunday afternoon at $ 0 cock, at his home, in Midlothian, aged sixty-four years.

He had been in bad health for a year or so, having received a paralytic stroke which subsequenty made him an invalid the greater portion of the time.

He had in his lieftime been highly bonored by the people of Chesterfield. For two years he represented them in the House of Delegates of Virginia, and he also served them as a member of the Board of Supervisors of the county. At the time of his death he was a member of the school board of Midlothian district. He always took a prominent part in county affairs, and his judgment was generally sound and good.

He had many warm personal friends, both in the county and in Manchester, besides numerous acquaintances throughout the State, who wil read the announcement of his death with deep sorrow and regret.

RICHMOND INDUSTRIAL HOME, How the Institution May be Made Fe'f. Sortaining.

An impetus has been given to the woman's department of the Richmond Industrial Home by a visit to that institution of Mrs. A. Y. Stokes, president of the Richmond City Mission, and Mrs. Raicigh Colston. These ladies, after making a thorough inspection of the home and premises, expressed hearty approval of the general pian of the work, and evinced a keen interest in the proposed arrangements for a washing and ironing school, a cooking school, a sewing school, etc. In the conduct of these industries it is confluently hoped that Mrs. Stokes will render vanable co-operation. A stove will be placed in one of the large rooms in the basement, and the old hospital's store-room together with the covered portion of the area, can readily be utilized for washing purposes. Ample accommodation for twenty or more washers exists, while abundant facilities for drying are afforded by the spacious yard. For drying during wet weather, as well as for ironing, the old dining-room No. 2 while be found convenient. Ironing may also be done in the lower story of the building, situated at the southwestern corner of the front grounds, the upper rooms whereof are suited to the manufacture and repair of coarse clothing. A plentiful supply of water is obtainable from the two large and never-faming wells.

The president of the City Mission was bighy gratified by her inspection, and expressed her pleasure with the prevailing cleanliness and order.

Money is what inis home most needs at the present stage, and this meney may be carned within its borders. An appeal is hereby made to the boarding-house and hotel keepers and other citizens of Richmond, to patronize the institution in the matters of laundry and washing, and also to aid in stimulating the other industries about to be established there, viz., since-making, carpentry, painting, house-re-bairing, etc. Each branch can be made to yield an income, if propertly supported, and there is no reason why the Home should not quickly become more than self-sustaining. Surplus earnings of inmates, i. e. profits realized after payment for the maintenance of the Home will be divided between the latter and those inmates by whose labor such profits shall have been produced.

Perfling the putting of the institution in thorough working order, it is earnestly hoped that the charitable-minded prople of Richmond will continue to contribute of their substance. Very many generous responses to similar appeals have been gratefully recorded by the management, but there is still sore need of many things, notably blankets and other bedding. Most of the present inmates are sleeping upon bare mattresses, without covering of any kind, and have experienced considerable discomfort during the recent cold nights, and applicants for admission are almost daily turned away for lack of these and other accommodations.

Money contributions in aid of the industrial operations will be thankfully rebe enatled to sustain the reselves by their industry.

To help such to help themselves is the desire of the founders of the Richmond Industrial Home. This appeal is endorsed by Mrs. A. Y. Stokes, both personally and in her official capacity as president of the Richmond City Mission.

At a meeting of the board of managers held Saturday evening, it was decided to dispense with the services of I. M. Blood, the superintendent, and the institution was given into the care of O. B. Glazebrook, the assistant superintendent.

Yesterday's docket in the Police Court was unusually light for a Monday, and the cases before Justice John were disposed of in less than an hour.

Anga Kirsten was charged with stealing a diamond ring, worth about 140, the property of Mattle Thompson, of Charlottesville. Anga was formerly connected with the Spider and Fly company, but was left behind here, while the company was filling its recent engagement in this city. The ring disappered on October 12th from the room of Belle Robinson, where Mattle was visiting at the time, and a pawn ticket for the same was subsequently found in Anga's possession, she having obtained a loan of $5 on the ring from Sam. Bachrach. However, there was not sufficient evidence to convict Anga, and the case was dismissed, with the understanding that the accused is to leave the city. To Display the Names of the Streets.

To Display the Names of the Streets.

The special committee, consisting of three members from the Common Council and two from the Board of Aldermen, appointed to look into the question as to how the names of the streets might be displayed at the various street corners, met last evening at 6 o'clock in room No. Il of the City Hail. There were present Messrs. White and Starke, from the Board of Aldermen, and Messrs. Gunst, Hobson and Murphy, from the Common Council On motion of Mr. White Mr. Gunst was elected chairman.

The latter explained the object for which the committee had been appointed, and referred to the estimate of the costs as submitted by Colonel William E. Cutshaw, the City Engineer. According to this report, there are available 552 gas lamp posts and 239 electric poles, while 560 conamental posts would have to be erected, at an expense of $6 each. Should the corner houses be used, there would be only 210 available. The total expense for the entire city would be $1,862, and for the annexed Lee district $25 in addition, making a grand total of $5,885.

Mr. Gunst added that he had requested Superintendent Adams, of the city gas works, to inform him as to the number of available lamp posts at street corners. Mr. Adams replied that there would be $90 corner lamp posts available.

Mr. Gunst called attention to the fact that, according to Mr. Adams' statement, the cost of $48 ornamental posts could be saved, or $2.48 in all, if Colonel Cutshaw's plan was adopted.

After some discussion the committee decided, on motion of Mr. White, to call for plans and bids to display the names of streets in the city, and also in the Lee district. The names are to be placed on 500 lamp posts, and also on 230 corner houses. The bids are to be opened next Monday evening at 6 o'clock, when the committee will meet again.

The Board of Fire Commissioners held their regular meeting at the City Hall last night. Mr. John H. Frischkorn (president) and Messrs L. C. Jenkins, J. L. Levy, J. R. Sheppard, Charles F. Taylor and G. Watt Taylor were present. E. L. Wright was elected sub-hoseman in Engine Company No. 6, and a compilities of three, consisting of Messrs, J. H. Frischkorn (chairman), Charles F. Taylor and L. C. Jenkins were appointed to wait on the Council and Board of Aldermen with a view to having certain repairs made to Washinston Hall.

The monthly reports of the chief and superintendent were read and filed.

The board then went into the postponed election to fill the vacancy of helper to No. 7 Engine Company. After several ballots, Licutenant E. J. Bradley, of No. 1 Truck, was elected. Mr. P. G. Randolph was made leutenant, vice Bradley transferred.

The board decided to wait until the next meeting to fill the vacancy occasioned by the promotion of Hoseman Randolph, and after approving current bills to date, adpourned.

The regular meeting of the City School Board of the city of Richmond was held at the office of the board, in the City Hall, yesterday aftenoon at 6 o'clock. Present, J. Taylor Ellyson (chairman), Hon. William Lovenstein, Hon. Joseph C. Dickerson, Alonzo L. Phillips, Edwin D. Starke, T. Wiley Davis, James H. Capors, A. D. Landergin and R. Edgar Shine: William F. Fox, superintendent, and Charles P. Rady, supervisor.

The superintendent submitted the following report of the condition of the public schools of this city for the past month; Schools, 25: principals, 17: teachers—white 18: colored 78; scholars—white enrolment, $501; colored 4,502; total, 11,103; per cent. of atendance, 26 3-10. These figures show a decided increase on last session in all directions. The schools are all working very satisfactorily.

The new marking system, which takes the place of the February examinations, except in the graduating class of the high school is now in use. It has not been in use long enough to decide as to its merits.

The night schools opened on the 1st of October, sand the last report shows 15 puells at Springfield and 53 at Elba. The scholars are deeply interested, and the schools are doing good work.

The cocking classes at the high school number 30 pupils, under Mrs. J. W. Cringan, teacher. They are taught every Thursday and Friday afternoon.

The board adopted the report of the committee on teachers and schools, making no change in the recess period in the district schools. The recess period of the high schools was reduced fifteen minutes, and the daily session shortened thirty minutes, closing at 2:30 daily.

BAR-LOCK TYPEWRITER. DOES AGE MEAN MERIT?

The BAR-LOCK is not as old as some other machines.

Neither are the other machines as old as a steel pen, not the steel pen as old as the quill. New things represent process. It is the new automatic actions and the new visible writing feature which make the BAR-LOCK the model writing machine of the world.

Full details or its automatic movements mailed free.
